HOW TO APPLY

1. Complete the Application Form (including a one-page description of how your academic work will contribute to the objectives of this scholarship) and send it to:
cjms@mcccana.ca (Attn: CJMS application)

Applications must be received by April 1, 2024 to be considered. The scholarship is awarded for studies in the 2024-2025 academic year.

2. Insert your name on both copies of the Request for a Letter of Reference, and forward the Request for a Letter of Reference and Information Page to each of the two references indicated on your application form. Note that references should be faculty or academic references.

Encourage them to send their letters of reference (signed and on official letterhead) directly to MCC Canada or from their institutional email address to cjms@mcccana.ca.

Should they wish to return the letter to you, the letter must be written on official university letterhead with the referee's signature in a separate, sealed envelope.

SELECTION CRITERIA

The scholarship will be awarded to a student who is:

- A Canadian citizen, permanent resident, or international student studying at a Canadian university in Canada;
- Enrolled in a graduate degree program the fall semester following the deadline; and
- Engaged in research that will assist the protection of minority or human rights in Canada.

HISTORY AND PURPOSE OF THE SCHOLARSHIP

The scholarship was created as a tangible symbol of cooperation between Canadian Japanese and Canadian Mennonites subsequent to a formal apology that was offered to Canadian Japanese by MCC Canada on behalf of Canadian Mennonites.

The scholarship is intended to assist the protection of minority and human rights in Canada, and to reduce the potential for abuse of cultural minorities such as that suffered by Japanese Canadians during World War II.
